

Unit 2 - What's your name?

1 – VOCABULARY: Porodica / Family

muž i žena (husband and wife)

suprug i supruga (m. spouse and f. spouse)

brat i sestra (brother and sister)

otac i majka (father and mother)

tata i mama (dad and mom)

sin i ćerka (son and daughter)

deda i baba (grandfather and grandmother)

unuk i unuka (grandson and granddaughter)

1 Dodaj reči koje nedostaju i napravi parove. / Add the missing words to make pairs.

1. muž i _____ (husband and wife)
2. _____ i supruga (m. spouse and f. spouse)
3. _____ i _____ (brother and sister)
4. otac i _____ (father and mother)

5. _____ i mama (dad and mom)
6. _____ i _____ (son and daughter)
7. deda i _____ (grandfather and grandmother)
8. _____ i unuka (grandson and granddaughter)

► Razgovor na času / Conversation in class

Ko je tvoj muž? / Ko je tvoja žena?

Ko je tvoj partner / tvoja partnerka?

Ko su tvoji roditelji?

Da li imaš brata ili sestru? Kako se zove tvoj brat ili tvoja sestra?

Da li imaš sina ili ćerku? Kako se zove tvoj sin ili tvoja ćerka?

2 – CONVERSATION: Porodične fotografije / Family photographs

M	Jesi* ovo ti?	Is this you?
B	Da, to sam ja.	Yes, that's me.
M	(Smeh) A vidi ovo!	(Laughter) And look at this!
	Čekaj, ne mogu da te nađem.	Wait, I can't find you.
B	Tu sam negde.	I'm there somewhere.
M	To?	This?
B	Da, to sam ja.	Yes, that's me.
M	(Smeh) Dobro.	(Laughter) All right.
M	E, a vidi ovu sliku. To si ti, isto?	Hey, look at this picture. That's you, also?
B	To sam ja.	That's me.
M	A ko je to?	And who's this?
B	To je moja majka.	That's my mother.
M	Kako se zove?	What's her name?
B	Zorica.	Zorica.
M	A ko je to?	And who's this?
B	To je moj otac.	That's my father.
M	Kako se zove?	What's his name?
B	A on se zove Sreten.	His name is Sreten.
M	A ko je ovo?	And who's this?
B	A, to je moja supruga, Magdalena.	Oh, that's my spouse, Magdalena.
M	Tvoja žena?	Your wife?
B	Moja žena.	My wife.
M	Dobro, a ko je to?	All right, and who's that?
B	To je moj sin, Viktor.	That's my son Viktor.
M	Tvoj sin Viktor.	Your son Viktor.

2. Pročitaj dijalog i poveži. / Read the dialogue and connect.

majka	Sreten
otac	Viktor
žena	Zorica
sin	Magdalena

* Jesi is another form of si (you are). We use it when asking questions, or starting the sentence, or confirming. Other persons also have long forms:

- ja jesam
- ti jesi
- on jeste

- Ja sam profesorica. Jesam ja profesorica? Jesam.
I am a teacher. Am I a teacher? I am.
- Ti si učenik. Jesi ti učenik? Jesi.
You are a student. Are you a student? You are.
- On je moj sin? Jeste.
He is my son? He is.

3. Stavi reči gde pripadaju i dopuni dijalog. / Put the words where they belong to complete the dialogue.

sam isto moja se jesi jeste je ovo ko žena sin zove

- _____ ovo ti?
- Da, to _____ ja.
- A ko _____ to?
- To sam ja, _____.
- A ko je to?
- To je _____ majka.
- Kako ___ zove?
- Nataša.
- A ko je _____?
- To je moja _____.
- A ovo je tvoj _____?
- _____.
- Kako se _____?
- Petar.

► Razgovor na času / Conversation in class

Spremi se da pričaš na času ko su članovi tvoje porodice i kako se zovu. Pripremi jednu fotografiju svoje porodice da pokažeš (opcija).

Get ready talk in class and explain who are your family members and what are their names. Prepare a photograph of your family to show (optional).

3 – SERBIA TODAY: Srpska imena / Serbian names

Serbian personal names mostly follow the same rule that applies for the nouns:

- female names end in -a, and
- male names usually end in a consonant.

(Remember, all sounds except a, e, i, o and u are considered consonants.)

♀

All female names end in the vowel -a: Jelena, Marija, Milena, Dragana, Jovana, Svetlana.

Many of them end in -ica: Milica, Zorica, Slavica, Dragica, Ružica.

A is definitely the female sound.

But girl nicknames can end either in -a (Maja, Jeca, Mica) or in -e (Majče, Anče, Lenče) or even -i (Majči, Anči, Mici).

♂

Male names often end in a consonant: Aleksandar, Vladimir, Miloš, Filip, Andrej.

Traditional Serbian male names usually end in -an: Dragan, Bojan, Milan, Dejan, Zlatan, Dušan.

However, many masculine names and nicknames end in -a. If you have Serbian friends or relatives, I'm sure you've met a Nikola, Nemanja, Strahinja, Andrija, Luka or Sava.

Some of them end in -ica: Ivica, Jovica, Vladica.

Also, some male names end in -e: Pavle, Đorđe, Radivoje; or even -o: Marko, Janko, Darko.

Nicknames often end in -ki: Boki, Deki, Zoki.

♀♂

There are a few names that can be both masculine and feminine, like Vanja or Saša.

► Razgovor na času / Conversation in class

Da li su lepa srpska imena? Koja su za tebe najlepša?

Moja omiljena muška imena su: _____

Moja omiljena ženska imena su: _____

4 – READING: Kako se zovu Srbi? / How are the Serbs named?

Ljudi iz Srbije obično imaju jedno ime i jedno prezime. Retko imaju dva imena. Neke žene imaju dva prezimena: prvo je prezime oca, a drugo je prezime muža.

Zavod za statistiku daje podatke iz popisa 2011. (dve hiljade jedanaeste) godine. Tamo čitamo koja su imena i prezimena najčešća u Srbiji.

Najčešća ženska imena su: Ana, Gordana, Dragana, Ivana, Jelena, Ljiljana, Marija, Milica, Mirjana i Snežana.

Najčešća muška imena su: Aleksandar, Goran, Dragan, Dušan, Dejan, Marko, Milan, Miloš, Nikola i Zoran.

Prezime je porodično ime. Svaka porodica ima jedno prezime. Prezimena potiču od imena predaka.

Najčešća prezimena u Srbiji su: Đorđević, Ilić, Jovanović, Marković, Milošević, Nikolić, Stojanović, Stanković i Pavlović.

Najčešće kombinacije imena i prezimena su Dragan Jovanović i Milica Petrović.

Danas obično roditelji biraju ime za bebu. Kratka imena su popularna, pa se devojčice često zovu Mia, Ema ili Una, a dečaci Luka, Lav ili Vuk.

People from Serbia usually have one name and one surname. They rarely have two names. Some women have two surnames: first is surname of [their] father, and second is surname of [their] husband.

Statistical office gives data from census 2011. There we read what names and surnames are the most frequent in Serbia.

The most frequent female names are: Ana, Gordana, Dragana, Ivana, Jelena, Ljiljana, Marija, Milica, Mirjana and Snežana.

The most frequent male names are: Aleksandar, Goran, Dragan, Dušan, Dejan, Marko, Milan, Miloš, Nikola and Zoran.

Surname is family name. Every family has one surname. Surnames originate from the names of ancestors.

The most frequent surnames in Serbia are: Đorđević, Ilić, Jovanović, Marković, Milošević, Nikolić, Stojanović, Stanković and Pavlović.

The most frequent combinations of name and surname are Dragan Jovanović and Milica Petrović.

Today, usually the parents choose the name for the baby. Short names are popular, so girls are often named Mia, Ema or Una, while boys [are named] Luka, Lav [Lion] or Vuk [Wolf].

4. Da ili ne? / Yes or no?

- 1) Ljudi u Srbiji obično imaju dva prezimena.
- 2) Neke žene imaju dva prezimena.
- 3) Gordana i Mirjana su muška imena.
- 4) Nikola je žena.
- 5) Dušan je muškarac.
- 6) Svaka porodica ima jedno prezime.
- 7) Kratka imena su danas popularna.

► Razgovor na času / Conversation in class: Kakva su muška i ženska imena u tvojoj zemlji? Koja su stara, a koja su danas popularna?